Watergate Commercial Beefing up Security

In a move to curb further vandalism in and around the Watergate Complex, Marc Rose, Manager of the commercial area surrounding the residential complex has increased the security patrol by 50%.

"This is at our own expense and will not be passed on to the tenants," Mr. Rose said by phone interview. "We believe our shops have every right to protection by management, and we're going to see that they get it."

Members of the Watergate Security Patrol will be off-duty police who are regularly employed by the Metropolitan Police Department. They have members who have been part of the SWAT Teams for emergency situations, and will be armed.

The action follows a series of vandalism at the Watergate Men's Shop and Gucci's. Watergate Residential has had one of the best reputations for security in DC, and took steps previous to Watergate Commercial to protect its residents.

ANC-2A Commissioner Robb Austin Resigns

ANC-2A Commissioner Robb Austin has sent his resignation to the Board of Elections. Elected earlier this year, Austin co-chaired the task force on the Homeless which focused recently on community resistance to the proposed move of Western Presbyterian Church to 24th & Virginia Avenue along with a feeding program for the homeless.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ANC-2A ACTIONS AT 10 OCT MEETING

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

EDWARD T. KELLY, CHAIR, ANC-2A Office: 202-223-5899
Home: 202-223-5692

At its regularly-scheduled monthly meeting on 10 October, ANC-2A did the following:

- Heard a presentation by At-Large Councilmember Linda Cropp on her roll as a member of the committees on Public Services and on Government Operations and Chair of the Committee on Regional Authorities.
- Passed a resolution supporting the Foggy Bottom Association in its application before The Historic Preservation Review Board to enter the Western Presbyterian Church into the National Register of Historic Places and strongly urging that Board to approve the application.
- Passed a resolution strongly opposing the closing of Bell's Alley in Square 120 (which Square contains the International Monetary Fund building and the Western Presbyterian Church), asking the City Council to convene a public hearing on these issues and requesting the Council to vote against this issue.
- Passed a resolution strongly opposing the proposed residential rate increase for local telephone service by C & P Telephone and requesting the Public Service Commission to follow the recommendation of its staff by decreasing the rates for such services.
- Authorized the Chair to request a clarification of the ANC Office Space Amendment Act of 1991, Bill 9-274) regarding whether an ANC must accept office space in a publicly-owned building which is within the Ward boundaries of that ANC but not within that ANC's boundaries and, if so required, to suggest to the Council additional wording for the Bill that would make the acceptance optional.
- Heard a report from a representative of The Library Theatre on its activities during the summer of 1991 throughout the District and in ANC-2A's neighborhood.

At its regularly scheduled monthly meeting on 11 November, ANC-2A did the following:

- Officially received and read into the record the resignation letter of Commissioner Robb Austin (SMD 2A04).
- Amended a resolution passed at the October meeting to join (not merely support) the Foggy Bottom Association in its application before the Historic Preservation Review Board to enter the Western Presbyterian Church into the National Register of Historic Places.
- Opposed any additional changes in the overall boundaries of ANC-2A that would reduce further the population of the ANC.
- Heard a presentation by a representative of The Southland Corporation regarding the issues raised by the ANC at the BZA hearing on the 7-Eleven and responding to the ANC's and community's questions on the results of the actions taken by the firm and the manager of the store.
- Heard a presentation by a representative of Iona House Senior Services on its efforts to create a new resource and service center at the former police precinct station at 42nd and Albemarle Streets, NW.
- Passed a resolution strongly supporting efforts to strengthen code enforcement in the District of Columbia's historic districts.
- Received a PUD Application from the Association of General Contractors and set in motion the creation of a Task Force to address this issue.
- Passed a motion to request the Public Service Commission to limit cogeneration facilities, which otherwise meet zoning and air pollution standards, to the current and near-term energy needs of the host site (because of the potential implications of the Georgetown University Cogeneration Facility case on George Washington University).

I have never seen so much community activity in this Ward 2. It's wonderful, and it's exhausting. Task Forces, Committees, Sub-Committees, Advisory Committees, Advisory to Advisory Committees. Never has a community been more aware of how important individual participation can affect the quality of life for all of us.

My congratulations to each and every one of you. It doesn't even matter whether you agree with each other on every issue or not. The important lesson that you send to all communities is that we care.

My appreciation to those of you who take the time to write to the Editor.

May I wish each of you a reason to give thanks for something wonderful in your life on Thanksgiving Day with the hope that you will have time to offer a prayer for those with less hope for the future.

Letters to the Editor are welcomed, and will be published in part or in whole, depending on available space. Please send correspondence to:

We will have a December issue of the Foggy Bottom News. All copy must be in by 5:00pm on the 5th of the month.

Advertisers must have camera ready copy by that date. There has been a problem concerning late copy. Check with your Ad Manager to make sure the copy is delivered to me no later than deadline-5:00pm on the 5th. Copy received after that time will not be accepted for that month's issue.

Many of you have written to me about the mailing to membership. Explanation: The printer goofed, and did not print our bulk mailing code. That is why some of you received a first class mailing. The mailing will be discontinued and reviewed after the first of the year. We are trying a new printer who is eager for the job and will hopefully give us a better final product.

We have a new staff member helping with distribution. He is Chip Snell from George Washington University. He will be responsible for delivering papers once per month.

Readership is up and advertising is up. All good news.

(excerpt) 10/15/91

Dear Ms. Stowell,

I am commissioner L. Yvonne Moore, 6C-09 in Anacostia. In your October issue of the Foggy Bottom News, "Dixon-Evans A Foggy Bottom Success? No Question About It" the article states that "she [Mayor Dixon] had the community in the palm of her hands...and they loved it." Congratulations to all of you, the entire city, except Anacostia.

As an advisory neighborhood commissioner in Anacostia, we do not have access to our mayor. She does not come to our community and her staff is generally indifferent to our requests to attend various meetings. She does not respond to anyone this side of the [Anacostia] river, save the Rolarks.

The next time the Mayor, the same one that Anacostians helped elect, comes to your community, tell her that we have tried to contact her, but we are totally ignored.

Respectfully, L. Yvonne Moore, 6C-09

To the Members of the Western Presbyterian Church:

We are writing as residents of that Foggy Bottom community in which, at 24th and G Streets N.W., you plan to relocate your church. It is our understanding through statements issued by your pastor, Mr. Wimberly, and his associates, that the proposed edifice is to house the charitable facility known as "Miriam's Kitchen" which will daily, Mondays through Fridays, between the hours of six and nine A.M., provide breakfast for the so-called homeless, two hundred and growing, who are drawn from as far away as Capitol Hill. As you doubtless know, that facility has heretofore been operating in your present church edifice in the very heart of Washington's business and commercial district at 19th and H Streets, N.W.

Although we are told that the "Miriam's Kitchen" activity merely leases its present quarters from your congregation, the aforesaid Mr. Wimberly firmly indicates that it is an essential feature of his ministry and of his congregation's commitment to Christian charity. We do not dispute the worthiness of the endeavor and, indeed, we also engage in various charitable activities. On the other hand, as residents of the densely populated community in which you propose to relocate the "Miriam's Kitchen" facility - a community of narrow sidewalks, large apartment buildings, and small private residences collectively housing hundreds of elderly individuals, retirees, and young working women, a community already overburdened and reeling from an influx of the so-called homeless, a community even now harassed by panhandlers, the mentally deranged, unseemly itinerant personal habits, and downright criminal assaults - we, like the so-called homeless, are in need of your compassion.

We are compelled to cite a provocative fact. In reviewing the home addresses of the Western Presbyterian Church congregation, we note that of the 127 thus listed, only 15 reside in proximity of the proposed "Miriam's Kitchen" facility, a facility that will unquestionably disrupt the tranquility and security of a densely populated community. On the other hand, 72 on the list reside in distant Virginia and Maryland and 40 elsewhere in the District of Columbia. In short, 112 out of the 127 families or individuals thus involved in promoting the charitable endeavor will be peacefully and safely removed from the daily disruptions and increased sense of insecurity thereby incurred. Are we, the residents of the community, to be forced out of our residences into a retreat to the suburbs? Surely a more convenient and appropriate location for "Miriam's Kitchen" than 24th and G Streets, N.W., can be found in Washington's business and commercial center. We beseech you affirmatively to seek such a solution to our dilemma.

November Report

Last month we had an outstanding Fall Festival, and I'd like to thank those who contributed to its great success. Elayne DeVito and Mary Lamb did a great job organizing the event. Ellie Becker was gracious enough to store all the White Elephant items in her home. Sandra Vonetes solicited many silent auction gifts. Henrietta Zoltrow made the arrangements for the site with a lot of help from Jane Lingo and the George Washington University. All the members of the Foggy Bottom Association Board worked exceptionally hard including Anne Lomas, Grace Watson, Richard Price, Harold Sarbacher, Barbara Kahlow, Kerry Stowell and Betty Olsen. We received a lot of support from people in the community -- Mary and Bob Brewster, Ed Schleifstein, Marianna Moore, Larry Miller, Sigma Chi fraternity, Casey's Bar & Grill, First American Bank, Brazil Tropical, and many others including an army of white elephant donors and generous local merchants.

Too often it appears that development issues dominate the Foggy Bottom Association agenda. However, land use issues directly impact the quality of our lives in Foggy Bottom. The outcome of development projects will determine the future of our community. That's why the Foggy Bottom Association encourages its membership to attend ANC-2A meetings and hearings before the Zoning Commission. On October 28, I had the opportunity to testify before the Zoning Commission in support of downzoning the Foggy Bottom Historic District. Ed Kelly and Maria Tyler did a great job presenting the ANC case to bring zoning regulations into conformance with the residential and historic character of this neighborhood. Many homeowners in the community also testified. This effort will hopefully preserve and protect the core of our community from unwanted development.

The IMF Planned Unit Development (PUD) application to the Zoning Commission is still the most important issue before the Foggy Bottom Association. There have been meetings with the parties to work out a compromise. The Foggy Bottom Association needs the financial support of the community to support its efforts with the historic landmark for Western Presbyterian Church and other hearings before city agencies.

I would also mention that on the first Wednesday of every month, the Second District Citizen's Advisory Council meets to discuss crime and neighborhood security with Deputy Chief Perry.

The Council meets at the 2nd District Headquarters on (cont'd next column)

3320 Idaho Avenue at 8:00 p.m. Two members of the Foggy Bottom Association Board (myself and Sandra Vonetes) are on the Council. Residents of the community are welcome.

Update on Zoning Proposals

by Barbara F. Kahlow

IMF

On October 22, 1991, pursuant to the encouragement of the Zoning Commission on Day 1 of the public hearing, the IMF sat down with the parties in opposition (the Foggy Bottom Association, ANC-2A, and Citizens for a Responsive ANC-2A) to discuss possible changes to the amenities offered by the IMF in exchange for the various exceptions requested from current zoning. Day 2 of the public hearing before the Zoning Commission will be November 14, 1991, starting at 7 pm.

2501 Pennsylvania Avenue/Square 14 Historic District

On September 30, 1991, at the Foggy Bottom Association, Mayor Sharon Pratt Dixon committed to reviewing the alleged procedural irregularities by City officials surrounding the Beers buildings on Pennsylvania Avenue which are part of the proposed development at 2501 Pennsylvania Avenue and the pending Historic District for Square 14. On October 21st, the DC Corporation Council met with the Foggy Bottom Association. Starting the next morning (October 22nd), in violation of an order which is still in effect - of the Court of Appeals staying any further demolition, the developer demolished the rest of one of the two Beers buildings and the facade of the second, leaving about half of the building still standing.

On October 25th, the Foggy Bottom Association filed a motion for the developer and its attorney to be found in contempt of court for ignoring the court-ordered demolition stay. Therefore, the Foggy Bottom Association asked the Court of Appeals to rule not only on the legality of the August 2nd demolition permit, the propriety of the Historic Preservation Review Board's (HPRB) September 3rd staff rejection of the Beers landmark application, and the clouded HPRB historic district votes on August 21st and September 25th, but also on the developer's violating the court-ordered demolition stay.

Historic Preservation Fund-raiser

Historic Preservation is one of the special interests of the residents of Foggy Bottom and the West End. Recently there have been several events and proposed zoning changes which have brought the need for an active role and support by the residents of Foggy Bottom. To achieve official recognition of the special, historic aspect of our neighborhood requires funding from the community. There are several ongoing projects in need of financial support including the landmark designation of the Western Presbyterian Church.

Your tax-deductible contributions will enable the Foggy Bottom Association to carry out these projects to preserve the special character and architecture of our neighborhood. Your kind support is graciously appreciated. Please make your check payable to the Foggy Bottom Association and mail to:

Community Support Requested for Gateway to Georgetown

by Barbara F. Kahlow

Many of you have followed the proposed development at 2501 Pennsylvania Avenue, in the Gateway to Georgetown block. Recently, we saw on two different occasions two illegal demolitions at 2509-2513 Pennsylvania Avenue (the Beers buildings). The first, on August 3, 1991, occurred after the city erroneously issued a demolition permit. The second illegal demolition occurred on October 22nd, despite the presence of a court-ordered stay of any further demolition. Many of you have contributed financially to the defense to save the historic and distinctive character of this block. The Foggy Bottom Association has filed numerous legal motions (including motions for temporary restraining orders, a lawsuit, and a contempt of court motion) to protect our neighborhood character. The legal expenses continue to increase.

This is our first appeal to the community at large for financial contributions to help with the defense. Please make your checks payable to the Foggy Bottom Association, attention 2501 Pennsylvania project, and send them to the Foggy Bottom Association, c/o the West End Library, 24th and L Streets, NW, Washington, DC 20037. Your contributions are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law. For recent information on the block, see the "Update on Zoning Proposals" in this edition of the Foggy Bottom News.

That's What Friends Are For

The West End Library is getting greener and cleaner, thanks to the efforts of the West End Library Friends. Landscaping has just been completed, and the library's windows will be washed and blinds installed. The Friends also gave the library over $1,200 for books and periodicals.

At the October 21 Friends meeting, President Robert C. Brewster reported that a very generous bequest had been made by Ms. Margaret Flender Ewing. Mrs. Ewing, a neighborhood resident who died last year, was a long-time anonymous financial supporter of the library.

The Friends are conducting a membership drive and soliciting donations. Another fund-raising effort will be a book sale, for which no date has yet been set. People with books and records to contribute can drop them off at the library.

At the October meeting, members reelected the group's officers: Robert C. Brewster, president; Mary Lou Hennessy, vice president; Lucille G. Duprat, treasurer; and Judith A. Maguire, Secretary. Robert F. Alcorn is ex-officio member of the Executive Board, and Henrietta Zoltrow heads the Finance Committee.

Jack Evans

Monthly Letter To:
The Foggy Bottom
Residents

Upon taking office in May, I was contacted by numerous Foggy Bottom Residents about the proposed increase by C&P Telephone to raise monthly residential phone rates by 57% increase.

This rate increase proceeding was unique for D.C. since it was not initiated by C&P. In fact, C&P had not sought a rate increase since 1985. Rather, this rate increase hearing began when the Public Service Commission (PSC) moved to investigate C&P's earnings and rate structure. C&P had resisted moves to have its earnings and rate structure examined and responded to investigation with a request for a 57% increase.

As you may know, all utility rate increase requests must be approved by the PSC. In order to ensure your voice would be heard during the hearings on the rate increase, I immediately placed a call to the Office of People's Counsel (OPC) and shared your concerns and comments.

The OPC is a D.C. government agency that serves as the advocate on behalf of utility consumers before the PSC. By forwarding your concerns to the OPC, I was giving strength to your voice before the PSC.

The end result was the OPC asking for a $47.4 million decrease in C&P's rates during a four-day hearing in early October. OPC's proposal is based on a 9.87% rate of return, including a 11.8% return on equity, compared to C&P's proposed 12.29% rate of return and 15.1% return on equity.

The next step of the process is a community hearing the PSC will be conducting 6:30 p.m., Nov. 18 at the New Image Baptist Church, 1839 Alabama Avenue, S.E. The PSC will review evidence presented by both sides at the various hearings and will issue a decision in January on whether to allow the 57% increase.

I encourage citizens wishing to further express their opinion on C&P's rate increase request to submit a letter to Jesse Clay, PSC Secretary at 450 5th St., N.W., 20001.

The OPC is headed by Elizabeth A. Noel, a lawyer, appointed to a three-year term by Mayor Sharon Pratt Dixon and confirmed by the Council of the District of Columbia. According to Noel, "Our testimony presents a very different picture of C&P ... this rate reduction is long overdue to District ratepayers."

*It is a beautiful day in the neighborhood...
when you drop by a GW event.*

We at The George Washington University want you, our Foggy Bottom neighbors to join us . . . at our special events on campus. We are host to an amazing array of programs and activities throughout the academic year and even during the summer.

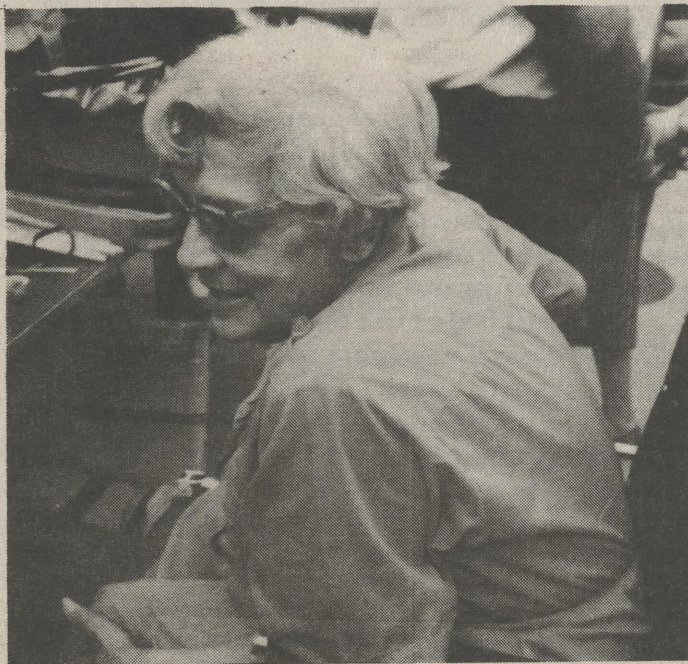

You can: cheer on our winning basketball teams (men's and women's) at the Smith Center, browse the collections at Gelman Library, among the finest in Washington, dine out at the University Club, take in a show at Lisner Auditorium, view an art exhibit at the Dimock Gallery (lower level of Lisner) or attend any number of free lectures presented not only by the University but the Medical Center as well. And that's just a small sampling.

We've even set up a special information number to keep you up to date on all of our campus events. Just call (202) 994-4949. We'll look forward to seeing you on campus.

The premature arrival of Ol'Man Winter served as a reminder that it's time for year-end tax tips. This month we'll provide some general advice; in December we'll comment on how recent tax-law changes affect your financial planning.

These remarks are for taxpayers who will be in the same tax bracket this year and next. You can reduce your tax liability for 1991 by accelerating deductible expenses and deferring taxable income. This is especially important if you under-estimated this year's income and will be subject to penalties for doing so. If you itemize deductions, pay or prepay deductible expenses (e.g., investors may pay for subscriptions to relevant publications for a period of up to one year).

Bunch medical and dental expenditures into one year to exceed the minimum 7.5% of Adjusted Gross Income. Similarly, pay for "miscellaneous deductions" (professional dues, tax-return preparation and investment-advisory fees, etc.) to top the minimum 2% of AGI. If you pay estimated D.C. taxes, mail the check for your 1/15/92 payment by 12/31/91. Those who are self-employed should buy equipment and supplies in December. In general, you may deduct each year up to $10,000 of the cost of business equipment, rather than depreciating it over a number of years.

Try to offset realized capital gains by taking any losses before year-end. To protect "paper profits" while deferring taxes, buy puts or sell short "against the box." By closing out the positions in early 1992, you will defer the tax for a year and thereby gain interest income. Tune in next month for more details on cutting your tax bill. Joseph O'Donnell, C.F.A. November 5, 1991

1991 Foggy Bottom Association Donors

The entire Foggy Bottom community is grateful to the 151 members who so generously contributed $2,259.00 to help the FBA continue to serve the community. Most of the donors have contributed each year to preserve the unique character of the area. The increased support has never been more welcome since the FBA, more than ever before, has been called upon to incur legal costs to represent the residents of Foggy Bottom before the District of Columbia boards. Thank you again your help. Grace E. Watson
